The meeting was called to order by Mayor Flood who led the attendance in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Mayor Flood opened the discussion of the re-zoning of the Industrial Zone (the area) by stating that the Comprehensive Plan recommends the elimination of industrial zoning in the village. David Stolman, village-planning consultant, reviewed the history of his participation in the process to date. The Trustees commented on the various ideas for the area. Mayor Flood opened the floor up to the public who gave varied suggestions for uses in the area. One request was to continue the discussion to another meeting, giving residents who might be away for the summer an opportunity to be heard. Mayor Flood agreed that the discussion would be continued and asked that all comments be forwarded to Donald Marra, Village Administrator, who will compile the information.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
